

Janice Bradley Achieves Further ABA Certification in Trust

Janice Bradley, Citizens National Bank Trust Administrator, graduated from the American Bankers Association Trust School at Emory College in Atlanta, GA during the fourth quarter of 2017. She was guided by leaders in the field to master the topics of Account Administration, Fiduciary Law & Compliance, Personal Financial Planning, Investment Management and Tax & Estate Planning.

Janice has already received certification in the ABA's Trust School – Foundation as well as their Trust School – Intermediate, so this Advanced Certificate completes her study within this program. Janice is also a graduate of the University of Mississippi and is an accredited paralegal. In her role as Trust Administrator, she is responsible for the care of trust assets for the benefit of its beneficiaries and providing excellent customer service.

Janice is looking forward to using this knowledge to better serve her clients in the Bank's Wealth Management Division. Janice said, "I am grateful to have had this opportunity to meet with other peers in our industry and learn in a team environment. We get to share successes and challenges from our own jobs and that is very valuable knowledge."

Citizens National Bank is an independent, Mississippi-based community bank, with 26 locations in the following cities: Meridian, Quitman, Philadelphia, Columbus, Kosciusko, Carthage, Macon, Southaven, Olive Branch, Hattiesburg, Laurel, Waynesboro, Flowood, Ridgeland, and Madison.

The Bank has assets in excess of $1.3 billion and manages over $1 billion in its Wealth Management Division, which is committed to assisting clients with the accumulation, and transfer of wealth.
