

Tracey Garrett Joins Wealth Management

Tracey Garrett recently joined CNB's Wealth Management Division as Brokerage Operations and Client Service Manager. In this position, she is responsible for the operations, compliance and administrative functions within the Raymond James brokerage unit. She also leads the Sales Assistants' support team – establishing service standards and training.

With 34 years of banking experience, Tracey joined CNB in March 2015 as a Relationship Banking Group Assistant in the Meridian Region. Teresa Thornhill, CNB's Chief Wealth Management Officer recently commented: "Our clients are sure to benefit from Tracey's thirty-four years of banking experience and her commitment to provide excellent service."

Tracey and her husband, Rodney, are members of the First Baptist Church of Lauderdale, where she serves as the Church Clerk as well as an Assistant Teacher in both Sunday School and the Church's Wednesday night Team Kids program.
