

Janice McCauley Bradley Joins Citizens National Bank's Wealth Management Division

Archie McDonnell, President and CEO of Citizens National Bank, is pleased to announce that Janice Bradley has joined the Bank's Wealth Management Division as a Trust Administrator.

With over 26 years of experience in the financial industry, Bradley has extensive expertise as a paralegal in the areas of consumer and mortgage lending, and wealth management. Most recently, she was employed with Wells Fargo Home Mortgage in Charlotte, North Carolina. Bradley is a graduate of the University of Mississippi and is a paralegal accredited with the American Bankers Association. Throughout her career, she has worked with several law practices and her expertise ranges from managing commercial collections to property transactions for the purpose of investing to build wealth.

She has also received recognition on numerous occasions from Wells Fargo for exceptional customer service as a high achiever and a most valuable team member. Also at Wells Fargo, Bradley was chosen to participate in corporate advisory committees designed to enhance employee morale.

Near her home in Charlotte, North Carolina, Bradley volunteered for the local humane society, caring for pets which were not yet placed in permanent homes. Additionally, she was a Crisis Assistance Ministry Volunteer who assisted persons in need.

She has one son, Josh, who is a junior at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, and who is majoring in psychology.

Originally from Philadelphia, Mississippi, Bradley relocated to Meridian in July of this year, and she is glad to be back home and living closer to family and friends.

Teresa Thornhill, Chief Wealth Management Officer for the Bank, recently commented: "Janice's strong legal and customer service skills will be an asset in her position as Trust Administrator in our Wealth Management Division, and she is a welcome addition to our team. Our primary focus is on our clients, and we believe in communicating regularly with each one of them to ensure that they stay well informed and that we are meeting their needs. Janice will play a key role in developing and maintaining these client relationships," Thornhill added.

Citizens National Bank is an independent, Mississippi-owned community bank, which has 27 bank locations throughout the state of Mississippi in Meridian, Quitman, Philadelphia, Flowood, Ridgeland, Madison, Columbus, Kosciusko, Carthage, Macon, Hattiesburg, Laurel, Waynesboro, Southaven, and Olive Branch.

The Bank currently has assets in excess of $1.1 billion and is celebrating its 126th year of operation in 2014.
